Jamieson Mullin Acquires Belyea Colwell Daley

The acquisition will result in expanded services and capabilities for leading accounting firm

Quispamsis, NB (November 24, 2020) – Full-service accounting firm Jamieson Mullin Chartered Professional Accounts is pleased to announce its acquisition of Saint John-based accounting firm Belyea Colwell Daley Chartered Professional Accounts (BCD). The acquisition is effective January 1, 2021 and includes the BCD executive team, four staff members and its client roster.

“The acquisition supports our growth strategy, increases our bench strength and bolsters the list of clients we feel privileged to serve,” says Jessica Jamieson CPA, Partner at Jamieson Mullin. “We’re excited to welcome our team members and offer clients our combined skills and expertise.”

BCD Partners Alan Colwell and Elaine Daley will join Jamieson Mullin as Principals. “We were seeking a like-minded firm to acquire our business: one that shared our values of trust, integrity and building strong relationships. That firm is Jamieson Mullin,” says BCD Partner Alan Colwell CPA, CA. “We’re working closely with Jessica Jamieson and Dean Mullin to bring our teams together under one brand and one roof and make the transition as seamless for our clients as possible.”

“BCD was founded by Darrell K. Belyea and his philosophy from day one focused on the importance of relationships as well as providing our services with the utmost integrity and professionalism,” says BCD Partner Elaine Daley, CPA, CA. “It was important to us to see our founder’s philosophy reflected in Jamieson Mullin – those principles and vision helped our business become what it is today. Our aligned culture and focus on exceptional client service reinforces why Jamieson Mullin is the perfect fit for our team.”

Effective Monday, January 4, 2021, the BCD team and clients will join Jamieson Mullin at its location at 158 Millennium Drive in Quispamsis, NB.

“Welcoming this team to Jamieson Mullin will grow our capabilities in auditing and assurance, complementing our existing skill set,” says Dean Mullin CPA, Partner at Jamieson Mullin. “This year has been challenging all around the world; we’re happy to end 2020 with this great news of growth for our business in a community we care deeply about.”

Formerly Steeves Porter Héту and Associates, serving clients and the community for more than 40 years, the firm rebranded to Jamieson Mullin in January 2020.
